Motivation letter

My name is José Nunes, I'm 34 years old, and I am a Frontend developer from Portugal, currently working at Ostmodern, for Formula 1 (developing for the F1TV web app → f1tv.formula1.com). I have been a software developer for 6 years. Although I started my IT career as a Python developer, I've been working as a frontend web developer for the past 4 years. My initial tech stack was focused on vanilla JavaScript and jQuery. Nowadays, I work mainly with modern frontend web technologies in the React ecosystem. In fact, I've been working as a React developer for two and a half years now. Some of the technologies I use daily in my work are:

- React
- Redux for state management
- Webpack as the bundler
- Babel to transpile both JSX and ES6
- Storybook to document React components
- npm as the package manager
- Jest/Enzyme for unit-testing
- ESLint and StyleLint for code linting
- Prettier for code formatting
- CSS modules and PostCSS (I've also worked with Styled-Components)
- redux-thunk and axios for AJAX
- Git for version control
- and the list goes on...

Right now, I'm looking to embrace a new professional challenge. I'm available to provide further information, and also to prove my skills in technical evaluations.

Best regards,

José Nunes
